Crisis or Opportunity?

Cataloging, Catalogers, RDA, and Change

CLA TECHNICAL SERVICES SECTION

Are you ready for RDA

(Resource Description and Access)
the proposed new cataloging standard set for release this year?

Diane Hillmann, nationally renowned authority on cataloging and metadata issues, will discuss the development and implementation plans for RDA, as well as how librarians can best prepare themselves for this transition to the new cataloging environment.

Topics covered include

- The critical differences between AACR2 and RDA
- How does FRBR (Functional Requirements for Bibliographic Records) fit in
- What will happen to MARC21
- The influence of the semantic web
